

Processed by: DAD
Date: 3/1/76

KINNEAR

KINNEAR, GEORGE

(OH-320)

47 pages

OPEN

Active in the Republican party in Washington, and the Eisenhower campaign of 1952.

DESCRIPTION: Interview #1. Personal background and service in Washington state legislature. Observations on Governor Arthur Langlie, and how he made decisions. The Eisenhower nomination campaign of 1952: work in King County with Ray Moore and Bill Howard; importance of his actions while serving as temporary chairman of the King County Republican convention; service as permanent chairman, Republican state convention; comment on DDE's advisors as compared to Robert Taft's advisors. Observations on the Eisenhower election campaign in Washington, 1952. Anecdote about Edgar Eisenhower and Governor Langlie in the campaign of 1956.

[Eisenhower Library Oral History Project, interview by Maclyn Burg, 1972]